

Narrativity 2024

Romancing

The MUSE

May 30-June 2, 2024

Crowne Plaza Minneapolis West, 3131 Campus Drive, Plymouth, MN 55441

Do you coax your muse with candy and candlelight? Are you ready to strangle your muse, the contrary so-and-so? Or maybe you don't have a muse at all, and your story-generating process is something entirely different. Come and debate the finer points of inspiration, perspiration, and metaphor — wine, roses, and/or garrottes optional.

- Fuel for the body, fuel for the soul.... our Sugar and Charcuterie Extravaganza kicks off the convention Thursday evening, May 30. Play games, consume calories, and get to know your fellow Narrativitists.
- Our concentrated track of programming commences Friday, May 31 and runs through Sunday, June 2. Learn cool things! Help others learn cool things! Share and enjoy!
- Need some TLC for that manuscript? Make a date with our writing workshop! During the day on Thursday May 30, a select group of storytellers will offer gentle solicitude or tough love, as needed, to help make your story the best it can be. (Workshop sign-ups close April 26; convention membership required.)
